SENATORS DIG IN FOR VICTORY

Fight "With Backs to Wall" to Tie Up Series Again With Giants

Griffith Stadium, Washington, Oct. 9.—No matter than a collection of Danbury hatters, the Washington Senators dug their toes into the dirt of Griffith Stadium this bright afternoon and swore to do or die in the sixth battle of the World's Series.

To hurl them up into a three-game deadlock with the Gotham Sluggers, the Senators picked Zachary, the best bet in their stable, to start today's encounter.

McGraw named Nehf as the New York selection and the fans settled back to see a two-handed contest, expected to be a long one.

SUNNY AND COOL

In contrast to yesterday, the weather today was bright and cheerful. The sun shone alone, but a cool breeze made the going somewhat of a surprise.

At least three fan dignitaries went by the board, shortly after noon, when President Coolidge crumpled up his napkin in the White House at lunch, and reclined he'd take Mrs. Coolidge over to the ball yard and look the boys over in the sixth game. That meant a ticket for the secret service man, also.

IN GRIM ARRAY

The grabbing of today's game by the Giants meant the end of the series, with New York crowned champion for the year, so Rocky Harris and his Senators were grim when they took their stations at the opening bell.

The cocky Giants, however, puffed up somewhat by two decisive wins over the great Walter Johnson, swaggered on the field as if the result of today's quarrel was already a foregone conclusion.

A vast crowd of 50,000 filled the stadium, and it was entirely for the Senators, only a faint chirp soaring up out of the din now and then for New York.

Just before the game began, the players of both teams gathered at home plate and stood at attention with bared heads for one minute in tribute to Jack Doolittle, veteran first baseman and field captain of the Cincinnati Reds, who died today.

SON OF BARON DETAINED AT ELLIS ISLAND

Philip Hottinguer, son of a French baron and financier, now studying at Harvard, was detained at Ellis Island, New York, for two days under disagreeable circumstances before being allowed to enter the country according to his father's request.

Hottinguer's father is Baron Rudolph Hottinguer of Paris. An honorary scholarship awarded by the Harvard Club of Paris was won by young Hottinguer. When he arrived in New York he was detained at Ellis Island on suspicion of endeavoring to circumvent the immigration restrictions. Friends obtained his release.

Immigration Commissioner Clegg said young Hottinguer was detained because he arrived in the United States without a student visa. The delay was necessary because a special board of inquiry had to consider the matter.

"I cannot understand what is meant by disagreeable circumstances in connection with his detention here," Clegg said.

The American embassy has not forwarded a full account of the incident to the State Department at Washington and the Harvard Club at Paris has communicated directly with President Lowell.

HYDE PARK GIRL WANTS TO BE HEROINE, BUT MOVIE STUNT FLOPS

'BURGLAR' STORY IS RIDDLED

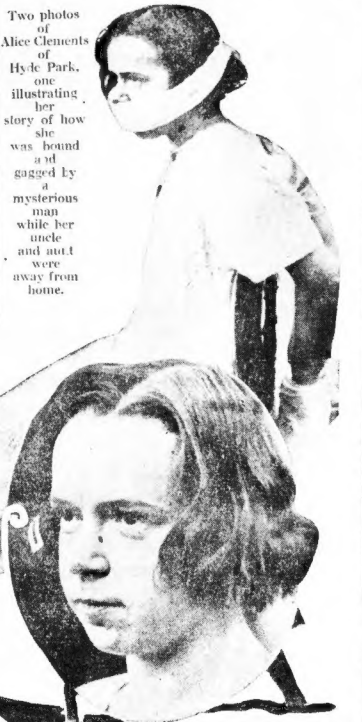

No Bad Man Trussed Her Up, She Is Forced to Admit After Long Grill

Despite the perspiring efforts of movie directors, the present-day movie does sometimes flicker out a lesson and does sometimes inspire—even you and I and Alice Clements, for instance, who is nineteen and romantic even in Hyde Park.

But even as in the movies, any body who does wrong usually skids a bit in technique and through the slip is brought up standing, or worse to that effect. This is important, because it also concerns Alice.

Alice, then, goes to the movies where romance is sweet, and a kiss is a kiss and battling heroines get all the applause and even the esteem of the kid brother.

SHE STAYED AT HOME.

She didn't go last night, however, but that didn't make her miss any excitement or romance. When her uncle, William A. Peterson, and his wife, returned to their home from the theatre they found they'd wasted plenty of pennies to see something acted when here was the real stuff right at home and free as free air.

Alice lay on the floor, trussed up like a plump little chicken and one of the best Peterson towels stuffed in her mouth like a big marmalade.

When they had unwound Alice from the collected not cordage, she told her exciting story, with one slim hand resting on her panting bosom and a Jeanne d'Arc expression on her blum face. She tried hard to save the silver, but they were too much for her.

Robbers had slipped in through the kitchen, she said, and took her unconscious, tying her up in trip twine, and an eye and stuffing a towel into her mouth. It was nice of the burglar to rock a clean towel, at that.

HER OWN HEROINE.

None of the family jewels were missing, however, and a purse of money in the house was all there. This is the clue, no kidding, Alice was too honest.

Today, under a barrage of questions and confronted with the fact that none of the boarders upstairs had even suspected that robbers were in the house, Alice oriented and quoted she wasn't such a heroine at that.

The reason—oh, the movies! She tied herself up and then waited for the excitement.

THREE SAFES CRACKED IN CAMBRIDGE

Two safes in the office of the Neapolitan Ice Cream Company on Lansdowne street, Cambridge, were forced and $2,000 in cash was stolen, police admitted today.

The break was the second of the kind this year. The crooks got in by climbing an ivy on the chimney and jimmying the office door. In making their exit they slid down an ivy chute and went out a back door.

The safes were wrecked and the office was turned upside down in the search for plunder. An automobile was found abandoned in the yard of the plant. The police don't know whether it was used by the robbers.

A third safe was opened on the plant of the Tyne Company, No. 155 Brookline street, Cambridge, near the ice cream plant. The robbers cut $100 in the Tyne plant.

GOV. SMITH OUT UNTIL ANKLE CALMS DOWN

Doctor Says He Can't Leave for New York Before Another Day, at Least

Governor "Al" Smith of New York, planned to leave Boston for New York today, but he has not yet been able to.

Dr. James H. Stinson, who has been attending the leading New York Democrat for mild arthritis of the ankle—painful but not serious—decided to keep his patient in bed another day.

As a result Governor Smith will leave for New York probably tomorrow, according to the physician.

So tender is the ball ankle that Smith's chief executive undoubtedly will be forced to ride in a wheel chair through the hotel corridors, so round the corner to the station in an automobile and be aided down the stairs and into his train.

Arthritis is too more painful and dangerous than a toothache, sprain and bad on the neck combined.

LA FOLLETTE TO CARRY FIGHT INTO WEST

Hoboken, N. J., Oct. 9.—With the Middle West his next objective, Senator La Follette left here for Detroit, where he will deliver a speech to-night.

After an all-night stop in Detroit, the Wisconsin senator will travel through Ohio to Cincinnati for a rally of his supporters Friday night. The senator continued campaigning in the East, at least until just before election day, in Newark, N. J., last night. In his address there he assailed both the old parties.

WORN OUT MEN AND WOMEN SOON REGAIN STRENGTH

The nervous system is the vital force of your body, the force that gives energy to every organ and every muscle. So great is the power of the nerves that a tremendous shock, such as fear, may cause death.
A lesser nerve shock will pale the cheeks, make the knees tremble, cause the heart to beat wildly or almost paralyze breathing. It weakens the vitality and strength we must possess to live. When we restore lost nerve power we quickly regain lost strength.
Nervous, exhausted men and women can soon regain their nerve force and as they rebuild their energy just a few days will bring.

COOLIDGE FALLS BEHIND IN 14TH DAY POLL

The fourteenth day of the Boston American straw ballot, or Presidential Preference Poll, was President Coolidge's poorest.
Not that the President is not still far ahead in the race hereabouts, not that there is apparent the remotest danger of his losing any of New England's 44 votes in the Electoral College—not that—but that Mr. Coolidge on this occasion is 156 votes behind the combined lead of La Follette and Davis.
As a rule, the candidates have been jockeying along like race horses out for an airing. There has been no sprinting. Each appears to have found his place and kept it. Coolidge, far out in the lead, with about as many votes as his two opponents together. La Follette and Davis running neck and neck.
On the fourteenth day, however, while La Follette and Davis continued to run like a pair, the President was not so far out in front.
Consider the figures:
Total 388
Coolidge 268
La Follette 254
Davis 234
Coolidge over La Follette 14
La Follette over Davis 14
Coolidge trails both by 156
Shift of Democrats to Coolidge .. 24
Republicans to Davis 41
Democrats for La Follette 126
Republicans for La Follette 89
Others for La Follette 82
The total vote up to date in Massachusetts is 9,257. The President's portion, 4,932, comes within 185 of matching the combined vote of his opponents. La Follette is only 191 votes behind John W. Davis.
The figures up to the present hour:
Coolidge 4,382
Davis 2,488
La Follette 2,387
The most interesting experience of the day was enjoyed by the reporter who made a tour of the waterfront and found 62 votes for La Follette as against the 15 cast for Davis and 11 for Coolidge.
"Fully 50 per cent. of those I interviewed," the young Bostonian writes, "appeared to be of Italian birth or extraction, and perhaps 80 per cent. of them would be elected if no 'foreigners' by the 100-per-cent."

"The Italians make no effort to conceal their disaffection with the immigration policy of the present Administration."
The Irish-British crowd, like several professions, appeared to be Coolidge, through and through.
A faithful poll in Worcester showed Mr. Davis to be a poor third: Coolidge 218, La Follette 64, Davis 31.
But for the news of the campaign, the uncertainty in Davis' life

DAVIS TO PREPARE FOR TOUR OF WEST

On Board Davis Special Enroute to New York, Oct. 9.—His campaign drive in Upper and Western New York ended, John W. Davis, Democratic candidate for President, leaving East today, headed for New York City to prepare for a two-week tour of the Middle West.
Mr. Davis boarded his train late yesterday after his speech in Buffalo last night was concluded. He told friends who escorted him from the Auditorium to the railroad station that while the New York trip had been strenuous, he felt more than compensated.

GOV. BRYAN SAYS DAVIS CAN CLEAN UP CAPITOL

Oklahoma City, Oct. 9.—Two more speeches in Oklahoma, at Enid, this afternoon, and Alva tonight, were on the schedule of Governor Bryan, Democratic vice-presidential candidate, on his second day's tour of Oklahoma.
Governor Bryan in his speeches yesterday extolled Davis as the "best man who could put this government back on an honest and efficient basis."

WILL PUBLISH NAMES OF VOTE SLACKERS

Aurora, Ill., Oct. 9.—Names of all legal voters of Aurora, who fail to go to the polls at the presidential election will be published, A. W. Simpson, president of the Aurora Kiwanis Club, announced today.

G. O. P. ATTEMPT TO BUY ELECTION REITERATED

Hazleton, Pa., Oct. 9.—John H. Haglow, chairman of the Democratic State Committee of Pennsylvania, has joined Senator Robert M. La Follette in his request for an investigation of an alleged "bush fund" being solicited by Republican leaders "to buy the election of President Coolidge in doubtful States."

DAWES TOLD KENYON IS NOT FOR LA FOLLETTE

Dawes Special on Route Through Iowa, Storm Lake, Ia., Oct. 9.—(AP)—Assurance that William S. Kenyon, former Senator from Iowa and now a Federal Circuit judge, was standing behind the Republican national ticket, was conveyed to Charles C. Dawes, vice-presidential candidate, today by a group of Jules Kenyon's personal friends and political advisers.

DAVIS SURE HE WILL CARRY EMPIRE STATE

New York, Oct. 9 (I.N.S.)—John W. Davis returned here today after a whirlwind tour of the Empire State to prepare for his second Western invasion.
Davis predicted that both he and Governor Smith would carry New York State in November.
"I believe that the American people will not approve of continuation of the present administration," Davis said.

BOSTON, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 9, 1914

"I am yours, Mamee; all yours!"

Loves of a Modern Flapper Told in Best Romance Ever Written by Author of "Chickie"

By ELENORE MEHERIN

THEY went out softly, on the faintest of clouds, into the living room. There, was a table, and on it a glass of wine. Margaret saw it, and she took it, making a dash for the door.

She held her head high as she earned the bulk into the darkened street. She would hold her head like this no matter what it cost to her. It was Margaret's wish.

On the corner she waited for the street car. The lamp from the living room sent a mellow, golden stream across her path, like a gentle warmth in the coldness of the night. She shivered and would not look toward the window.

She never saw, not now and then, saw Will Meadows again.

Eight years pass. All that time he had been waiting for her.

Amrad WGI, seems to be coming in weaker and weaker on the south side of Boston. As the night fell by 1 meter, the steady decrease in their volume that night the wave was practically asphyxiated by a continuous wave, the origin of which must have been some other 300 meter station. The WGI wave was sung, while some new arrangements will be used. The quartet will share the program with the Players' Trio, a group of excellent instrumentalists who come by the courtesy of "The Players". These two musical organizations provide an evening of rare enjoyment.

GRID TEAMS TO CLASH UNDER FLOODLIGHTS MONDAY NIGHT

NOVEL TILT BILLED HERE

By FRED C. LANE.

The second evening football game to be played in this State will take place next Monday night, starting at 7:35 o'clock, when the Dean 2nd team meets the General Electric apprentices at the G. E. Field.

The scheme was tried out last year with the Tufts College second team as opponents and proved a success. The field was illuminated by floodlights and the game was played under the same conditions. The game was a success and the attendance was large.

TRAIN AFTER DARK
Dean Paul Linsford, who has been playing football since he was a boy, is the star of the team. He is a fine player and a good leader. The team is well coached and is expected to do well.

To date he has met St. James High of Haverhill and Middlebury High of Vermont in their respective seasons last year, and the Dean team has won both games. The team is well coached and is expected to do well.

SECOND YEAR OUT.
The team is now in its second year. The team is well coached and is expected to do well. The team is well coached and is expected to do well.

Scholastic Chatter
A 1100 dollar bill, of which the Everett High Athletic Council refused to pay half, is the cause of all the trouble at Everett High. The team is well coached and is expected to do well.

Other schools in the Suburban League, in fact every team of any standing, are for the better players and it seems probable that the Everett team will be laid up for many months. The team is well coached and is expected to do well.

Coach George Buckley is remaining neutral on the question. He is at the football field each day but works out all by himself. The team is well coached and is expected to do well.

The team is slated to play the General Electric Apprentices on the 10th. It is doubtful if this game will be played. The team is well coached and is expected to do well.

Great Is Epinard

East Now Completely Converted to the French Horse

ANOTHER turf proverb of years' standing is about to be turned into fact. For years American trainers have contended that shipment of high-strung thoroughbred horses across the Atlantic was a dangerous proceeding.

Defeat awaited such candidates UNLESS the trainer was careful to fully accustom the animal before starting him. England sent its turf king here and he was beaten easily after but a brief rest from the rigors of the passage. Now France has its greatest running star, Epinard, here. He, too, was beaten in his first two starts. BUT—there comes now a day of reckoning. Epinard is used to the climate and other changes, and is ready to do his best in the big race Saturday.

The East is converted to him. A recent trial of a mile in 1:38 fixes the public mind to the fact that the colt is really a great racing machine. There is nothing in this country to beat him when he is right. There are times when it is rather refreshing to have a defeat vary the monotony of continuous victory.

"That's just good advertising," you'd say; "a growing business must win confidence and respect"

Well, aren't you a business, really?

Aren't you trying to market your talents, your personality, advantageously?

It's businesslike to wear clothes that the world will respect.

The St. Joe amateur boxing is a poor one. The youngsters give more money for an ordinary prize than one of our professionals do for a champion prize.

For the first time this year the new crop of boys in the heavyweight class is also well made their bow, and putting in the large list of entries in the division.

This will be the first open class how of the tournament. The amateurs have been holding away in the recent tournaments and many of the boys who were prize in these classes will be on hand tonight to compete in the open classes.

FINANCE

By B. C. Forbes

This column is not political, but sometimes its readers take an intelligent interest in politics. "What do you think of the election?" I have been asking in an offhand way, waiters, barbers, clerks, salesmen, hankers-all sorts and conditions, in fact. The replies gathered given exactly as expressed, will perhaps prove illuminating.

Said a waiter in Kelly's Oyster House, 203 street, New York: "Coolidge is all right, but I don't like him. He's a Republican, and the Republicans have had their chance to do things for the working people and we haven't had them."

"Haven't wages and working conditions improved?" I asked. "Yes," he said. "They are better than they were before the union and the workers themselves forced the issue to gain what they wanted. Take it from me, the boss doesn't care one darned thing they were forced to do."

"I've made up my mind to vote for the fellow in the White House," he said. "He has been president for more than twenty administrations, and the Constitution is the law of the working people, I'm going to vote for him."

A Philadelphian interested in the security brokerage business put it this way: "It seems to me that the only States which will be carried by the vote will be those in the North (excepting, perhaps, Maryland) and those States total about 12 electoral votes."

"I believe Coolidge is virtually certain of sweeping the South," said a Middle Atlantic States and New York and the States of Ohio, Illinois, Michigan, Indiana, Ohio, and California. Very probably, he will also carry Arizona, Nevada, Idaho, Maine, Virginia, West Virginia, and New Jersey. I don't think he has any more chance of carrying it than if he were president of Pennsylvania."

"I think the only possible chance for La Follette is in the Northwest, and even if he carried all the Northwest States, including Oregon and Wyoming, which are sure Republican, he will only get 77 votes. As a matter of fact, the only States that Coolidge will carry, Minnesota and Washington, are those in which I can determine the result with no real chance at all, and I think the newspaper stories to that effect are not warranted."

"As to California, La Follette is now running on the Democratic ticket, and how many life-long Republicans are going to vote the Socialist ticket?"

WIDER MARKET FOR AMERICA'S NEED

By FRANK H. MELOAN, Financial Editor

James A. Farrell, president of the United States Steel Corporation, has made the need for a wider market for American products a subject of much interest to the American people.

"The American people," he said, "are not only the largest market for American goods, but they are also the largest market for American goods. The American people are not only the largest market for American goods, but they are also the largest market for American goods."
